REPORTS

Composite Reports of the District Superintendents

The District Superintendents are grateful to Almighty God for the privilege of reporting the work of the Districts of the North Carolina Conference to this Eighty-first Session.

We are also happy for the hearty and unselfish co-operation we have enjoyed from our brothers, the pastors of the churches, with whom we have untiringly worked, and with whom we gladly share what victories we have had this Conference year.

We are grateful to have the privilege to serve under the kind and brotherly leadership of Bishop Matthew W. Clair. His leadership is of the type that inspires confidence. He makes one believe in his ability to do, and he sends one forth determined to carry on against all odds. His approach to a task is with confidence in his co-workers, and an unswerving fidelity in the sacredness of the objectives sought.

THE UNITING CONFERENCE IN KANSAS CITY

The Uniting Conference held in Kansas City last May will be long remembered by all who attended, and goes down in history as one of the greatest epochs in our history. If in 1830 the Methodist Protestants went out because of differences of opinion with regard to administration and financial support, and if in 1844 the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, went out because of differences of opinions with regards to slavery, truly in Kansas City the breaches were healed, the bridges were built, and there is left only the great treck back across the bridges that once separated us but which now serve to allow us to come together organically as one Methodism. We come back over the bridges with faith in God that united, we shall present a front for the forces of righteousness that shall gain larger respect from the ecclesiastical bodies—a united front which may be the symbol of righteousness and a declaration of war against sin wherever it may be found.

WORLD SERVICE

The missionary work of the Church is carried on under the title, "WORLD SERVICE." With us World Service means just as its name suggests—serving the people of the world through the various agencies of the Methodist Church. Our reports on every district will show an increase. This, we consider a worthy result from forceful leadership. And in this, the District Superintendents admit a share in the type of leadership which we have tried to follow under our "Chief." Even though our reports will show an increase over last year, in the words of the Apostle Paul we are still saying today: "We count not ourselves to have apprehended; but this one thing we do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, we press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

The District Superintendents recommend that obedient to the call of the great Church we approve a special world service offering to be designated to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. And in that we have such needy building and debt projects already involving us here in North Carolina we humbly request that moneys raised from this special world service offering be allotted for use here on the several districts of the North Carolina Conference.

EDUCATION

Among the many educational institutions in North Carolina, two of them—Bennett College and Allen School—are especially dear to our hearts.

We recognize in Bennett College one among the best colleges operated for Negro girls in America. Its able President shows by marks of progress that he "came to the kingdom for such a time as this." The school needed and still needs the leadership and the connections President Jones is able to bring to it these days. The North Carolina Conference is squarely behind Bennett and President Jones. Our loyalty and support is not to be measured exclusively by our contributions in money and money values. We are doing some things along that line. More can and will be done. New buildings and new equipment are going up and going in at Bennett College, together with the loyal and unselfish services by administration and faculty, bind us to the support of the school with might and means. The Conference-wide Food Rally has become an institution, and is growing in favor and support. Many are able to give in that way who have nothing else to give.

We recommend that our assessment to Bennett shall be made large enough to include such food stuffs as our people may be willing to share with the college, the same to receive wholesale market value and be credited to the churches sharing on Annual Conference investments.

Allen School at Asheville is well known for the training in home making and aesthetic culture it has brought to our race group. Founded by one of the saints in those early days after slavery, and maintained through the years by the W. H. M. S., and directed by some of the purest hearts of our Methodism, Allen School has a unique place in modern education, and is deserving of our support.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT

Ministerial support is directly affected by economic conditions. We feel that not as much has been done as ought to have been done. We know not as much has been done as the people themselves have desired. We adhere to the disciplinary requirement in the collections and distribution of ministerial support. We have suggested that the four items—namely: Episcopal Fund, Conference Claimants, District Superintendents, and pastors, be faithfully and prayerfully pro rated. Our reports show that not only have the suggestions been made by the District Superintendents, but with few exceptions, the actual distribution has been faithfully observed.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Ladies' Aids and Woman's Home Missionary Societies add much to relieving the social and financial obligations that are so necessary to the life of the church. The church needs these departments, and as soon as we learn to use them to the good of all, the better. These societies have helped the church beyond calculation when the call has been made, and many a critical stiuation has been relieved by the timely help of these auxiliaries. We recommend a more timely diffusion of their possibilities, and we urge that greater recognition be given to what these are doing and what can be done, when the women of our churches are properly and adequately organized. We firmly hope that this work among the women may become so contagious that the men of our churches may catch it. And we are hoping that in no mild form, either. We wish that there might be a great epidemic of it to the end that there might not be a charge or church where both men and women should not exhibit serious symptoms, and "break out" with it to the end that inertness and indifference might be cured, and the work made to prosper increasingly.

OUR NEEDS

Our needs are pathetic and cannot be spoken in words. Many of our churches are severely threatened with debt. Parsonages and church buildings are in dire need of repair. Some of them ere the next twelve months will probably fall into disuse. Twelve thousand Negro people in North Carolina, many of whom are without jobs, and many of them with no earning strength if jobs were available, have sacrificed of their meager means that the Methodist Church might carry on its program of World Service throughout the world. Many of them are doing this without a visible means of adequately supporting their own local church programs. There is a question as to how long some of these can continue. They, too, must be helped some if they are to continue helping others.

The fountains of spiritual power are full to overflowing, but many, blinded by social, political and economic pressure, seem not to know how to tap the streams that the river of the "abundant life" may flow full and free into their souls. Surely there is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the City of God, the holy places of the tabernacle of the Most High. Our people need but to find it. If they may but find it, God becomes their refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Then will they not fear though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea. Then the God of Hosts will be with them. The God of Jacob will be their refuge.

World Service Committee's Report

The membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church and all Christendom, for that matter, face today one of its most testing moments. The forces of disintegration are at work, and for the moment apparently successful in every area of our life. To those of small dimensions and limited vision there is, therefore, just cause for alarm but, to those who approached the measure of the fullness of Christ and whose ears are open to His insistent commission, thre comes a challenge to a campaign of no defeat.

Therefore, we, your World Service Commission, charged with the responsibility expressing your method of facing such a challenge, beg to submit the following:

That the members of the North Carolina Conference, in annual session assembled, accept without reservation the program of World Service Commission: to wit:

That we strive to strengthen the bonds of Christian fellowship between every member of our communion and that we accept the full quota of Million Fellowship Units, recommended by the World Service Commission for 1939 and 1940, and prayerfully set ourselves to the task of raising them. They are 692.

(Signed) R. S. Abernethy,
E. M. McCleod,
J. W. Shuford,
B. L. Burge,
J. W. Hall.

Resolution

Whereas, there is an Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction now in session in Muskogee, Oklahoma, under the wise and prudent presidency of Bishop Robert E. Jones, who is one among the most beloved, gifted and distinguished sons of this Conference; therefore, be it:

Resolved, that the Secretary of this Conference be instructed to send greetings to Bishop Jones and his Conference and that the phraseology of said greetings be in accordance with the desire and wish of our presiding and resident Bishop, M. W. Clair.

(Signed) R. W. Winchester.

Committee for China Relief

Whereas, there is a terrible crisis in the national life of China, a nation among whose people we have so long labored, and,

Whereas, multitudes of our brothers and sisters in China are suffering unprecedented human need;

Therefore, be it resolved: That the N. C. Conference of the Methodist Church, Central Jurisdiction, extend immediately the hand of helpfulness by:

(1) Reaffirming the action of the Uniting Conference of Kansas City last spring concerning China Relief;

(2) Calling upon our pastors to interpret to our membership the appalling situation and give our Christian people a very early opportunity to demonstrate that they "Have a heart for China" by making sacrificial gifts;

(3) Recognizing the Church Committee for China Relief as the official agency through which the N. C. Conference of the Methodist Church, Central Jurisdiction, will co-operate with other denominations in a united effort for China Relief.

Pensions and Relief

We, the Committee of Pensions and Relief, recommend the following:

First—The asking for Pensions and Relief be the same as heretofore, five per cent of the pastor's assessed salary.

Second—Each charge will elect a Conference Claimant Steward, or Board, to collect and have charge of this fund.

Third—That this Steward or Board make report of amount raised each Quarterly Conference.

Fourth—That the Pension and Relief Fund be placed in the budget of the charge at the beginning of the Conference year. This money to be raised monthly, quarterly, or semi-annually, and sent to the Board of Pensions and Relief, at whatever time it is raised.

Fifth—That Father's Day be observed as Conference Claimant Day. That every pastor preach a sermon on the importance of this fund, and at that time take a collection for the same.

Sixth—That we go on record to build a relief fund for the Supply Pastors.

We further recommend that one be appointed representative from each District to confer with the Conference Claimant Steward of the local churches, and report at the District Conference the progress of each charge.

Respectfully submitted,

Young People's Congress

During the session of the School for Rural and City Pastors at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., in August, 1939, a group of ministers in attendance there at the school was called together to discuss the feasibility and advisability of conducting a state-wide Young People's Congress under the supervision of the North Carolina Conference.

Advisability and feasibility of such an Institute was approved by those in attendance, and a motion prevailed that this body serve as a Committee to introduce a Resolution for consideration and approval at the North Carolina Conference in its session at Raleigh. The Committee was organized with G. Haven Caldwell, Chairman, C. W. Perry, Secretary, with two sub committees, viz:

1. The Committee on Ways and Means, composed of:

D. D. Jones	H. L. Ashe	W. T. Lomax
G. M. Phelps	C. W. Perry	W. M. Wells
T. H. Wooten	R. B. McRae	R. C. Sharpe
F. A. Tolliver	J. F. McRae	R. T. Weatherby
S. A. Peeler		T. S. Wright

2. Committee on Program, composed of:

G. Haven Caldwell	W. S. McLeod	J. E. Brower
W. J. Cameron	F. D. Caldwell	C. A. Barrett

and the four District Superintendents ex-officio.

As an outcome from this meeting, which met enthusiastic endorsement, we present the following Resolution:

WHEREAS, There seems to be a need for a Conference-wide getting-together of representative young people from the four districts and the various localities of our Methodism for the purpose of studying methods, gaining information and enthusiasm, and creating leadership for the various churches of our Methodism, and

WHEREAS, this need seems easiest met by bringing our young people together in some central location under the inspiration, information and tuterlege of experienced and well trained persons in the various fields of religious achievement and endeavor, that aims and goals may be set up and means and methods of reaching those goals outlined and presented, and

WHEREAS, we have examples of the success of such movements in the many Young People's Institutes and Conferences conducted in various strategic localities in our Methodism; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the North Carolina Conference, endorse such a movement and proceed to plan for a gathering of our young people by delegations from the various districts and charges of our Methodism, in some central place, preferably Bennett College, in Greensboro, N. C., and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Conference endorse the setting up of this Young People's Congress by the election of a Temporary Director, and the raising of a Committee on Ways and Means composed of the members elected at Bennett College, and above mentioned, and others as the Conference may elect, and a Committee on Program, composed of the four present Deans of the respective Institutes, the four District Superintendents, ex-officio, and any other persons as this Conference may deem advisable; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that these Committees be prepared to make their final reports at the After-Easter Roll Call, and that at that time the place, the date, and a permanent organization for the Conference set-up be perfected.

HISTORICAL VIEW

From the organization of Methodism in America, the work in North Carolina was continued in Virginia and afterwards in the Virginia and South Carolina Conferences. In the year 1836, the General Conference set up in North Carolina. Its first session opened as a part of the Virginia Conference, but when it adjourned, there were two Conferences.

Facts from the first ninety sessions are gleaned from the General Minutes from the Conference Journal for those years, which is now in custody of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

At the Conference of December 4, 1844, there were 19,495 white members and 3,190 colored. Without consulting the wisdom of the latter, nearly the whole membership became part of a new church, organized in May, 1845, and called the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Some of the colored members entered the A. M. E. Church, some the Colored M. E. Church of America, but thousands turned gladly to the bosom of the old Methodist Episcopal Church as it returned to the State after the Civil War.

Between the years 1844, when the Church was separated over the slave question, and in 1865, when at the close of the War, the M. E. Church returned to shepherd its scattering flock in North Carolina, there was no session of the North Carolina Conference.

From the North Carolina Conference, the Blue Ridge was formed with twelve preachers, 2,839 members and probationers, and 41 church edifices.

GREETINGS FROM PASTOR TEMPLE METHODIST CHURCH

Ministers, Laymen, and Friends:

May we assure you that we feel it to be no small honor to be favored with your presence.

In the Eighty-first Session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the First Session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, we hope to show you by our cordial welcome, our kindly consideration, our sincere and genuine interest in every detail that may contribute to your comfort and happiness, that we are more than pleased to have you.

Fourteen years ago you came to the capital city of North Carolina, and Wilson Temple was your host.

The sacred impressions and hallowed memories of that Sixty-seventh Session abide with us still, leaving a fragrance that cannot be forgotten.

Loyal and sacrificing men and women who gladly entertained this Conference fourteen years ago remain with us to welcome you to their humble but hospitable homes.

We have spared no pains to prepare for your coming and for your adequate entertainment while sojourning with us.

We are delighted now, as in 1925, to have Bishop M. W. Clair preside over the sessions.

We wish for you our Father's richest blessings.

Your friend and brother,

W. S. McLEOD, Pastor, Wilson Temple Methodist Church.
